

Quality policy

Basic commitment of our business policy and strategy of developing CMC Sisak d.o.o. is production and delivery of seamless and welded pipes in quality which is recognised on the market and represents main element of differentiation against competition and the foundation of market brand of CMC Sisak d.o.o. .

Our commitment includes:

- maintaining and obtaining all needed certificates for our products and quality system
- uncompromising implementation of all quality management system elements by all employees
- continous quality improvement of our products and quality management system
- special emphasis on workplace safety and environmental protection together with equal treatment to all employees
- profitable way of thinking in all levels of organisation

The company management will periodically review the implementation of quality policies, and if needed harmonise it with business policies, as well as take appropriate actions with the purpose of constant improvement of the processes effectiveness in the quality management system.

Sisak, 2009-09-09

CEO

Paško Vela